APPOINTMENT FOR GOV. BRANLETTE.-GOV. county at the court-house in Munfordville on next Saturday, July 22d. at one o'clork.

Mr. J. B. Kinkead, we regret to announce, has declined to make the race for the Legislature in the Third District of this city. His business affairs ntterty preclude his candidacy for office

We again notify those of our city subecribers who owe us for subscriptions up to January 1st to call at the office and sattle at once, as we cannot wait 1 nger on them. An immediate comp innee will obviate the necessity for the use of compulsory means.

NIFORM TIME.-With the introd tio in our city an opportunity is offered to our citizens for the maintenance of a nul oran eyetem of time. The ringing of the bells at 7 A. M., 12 M., and 6 P M., affords a chance for ery resident to set their time-pieces with the belis. At prese t a'most every jew ry estabstment in ou city has its own time, the town nd every owner of a watch has his time so at, were the standard or true time cailed for, two time-pieces would agree. This thing z be easily remedied. Let any of the chrosters in our city be adopted as the city bave heard of "the aff ir," the performance ne. Let the Alarm Telegraph ring the bells sh that time, and then let our banks, hotals. ers, and railroads adopt the Fire-Aiarm frmances in the met glowing terms, and say egraph time for the true time. Then a nni n system being established there would be a ect, easily maintained, and regular time | they make through the streets is of the most ghout the whole city. We throw out the estion confident that if something of the were adopted it would prove a great conence in every respect.

ARREST OF HORSE THIEVES. - A band of horse 'er have been for some time committing eir der edations in this vi ulty. Detective in A. business. They had gradually enlarged the sphere of their operations, and were rapidly growing rich, when this crash came. They immediately took in sail. Both were prudent, and both felt that this was the time when this quality was urgently needed.

Be great efforts they had succeeded in keeping up till the 14th of February, 1858. On that moraling a note of two thousand dollars came due. This was their last peril. That surmount-

But, this was the rock on which they had most apprehension. They had called upon their friends, but their friends were employed in taking care of themselves, and the selfish policy was the one required then.

"Look out for number one." superseded the golden rule for the time being.

As I have said, two thousand dollars were due on the list of February.

"How much have you got toward it? "asked Wilber, as Stacy came in at half-past eleven.

"Three hundred and seventy-five dollars," was the dispirited reply.

"Was that all you could raise?" inquired his partner, turning pale. "Are you sure you thought of everyboly?"

"I have been everywhere. I'm fagged to death," was the weary reply of Stacy, as he sank exhausted into a chair.

"Then the crash must come," said Wilbur, with a gloomy resignation.

"I cappose it must."

"Then the crash must come," said Wilbur, with a gloomy resignation.
"I suppose it must."
There was a silvener. Neither felt inclined to say anything. For six mouths they had been straggling with the tide. They could see shore, but in sight of it they must go down. At this moment a note was brought in by a boy. There was no postmark. Evidently he was a special measuring. It was opened at once by Mr. Wilbur, to whom it was directed. It contained these few words only: ords only:
"If Mr John Wilbur will call immediately at
